

Adaptive Carriage Driving Workshop

Offered by: The Carriage Barn Adaptive Therapy Programs
Kensington, NH
www.carriage-barn.org

May 18-20, 2017

May 21st-Special Invitation Only ADT

Comprehensive Overview of:

- History and modern use of carriages in adaptive situations
- Carriage Association of America (CAA) Proficiency Model
- Antique carriage and modern vehicles
- Evaluation of minis, ponies, and horses as therapeutic equines

Eight-week proficiency-based syllabus, inclusionary approaches to fit your client's needs

Clinicians Will Include:

- Cherylann Parker, M.Ed.: Specializes in Communication Disorders, several certifications in both regular and special education, Director of curriculum for a regional school system (retired), CAA Level 1 and Road Driving Certified Carriage Driver
- Ann Miles, Ph.D.: Executive Director, Educator, PATH Certified Therapeutic Driving Instructor, over two decades of working with an inclusive population of students in adaptive carriage driving
- Emily Chase: The Carriage Barn Program Director, PATH Certified Therapeutic Driving Instructor, CAA Level 1 and Road Driving Certified Carriage Driver

Clinic price is $800 per participant

For more information please contact Ann at carriage-barn@comcast.net or 603-378-0140